

*ESSENCE*TANTRA

And Regenerating Passion

-- A Life-Changing Practice for Couples -- and Singles --

Together or alone, come learn the non-sexual yet vitally arousing form of Tantra called Gyoki, or *Essence*Tantra -- an easy-to-learn, highly pleasurable body-mind energy practice for partners. It will open a field of magnetic bodily connection, remove the opacity between your two minds (yes, I know that is quite a claim!), and create a viscerally palpable synergy and bonding.

*Essence*Tantra awakens an energetic bond that both regenerates wonderful and intense physical passion and yet is deeper, more peaceful and more lasting than passion. Practiced together weekly at home, or learned as something to then teach a present or future partner (and so blow his or her mind!), its far-reaching health benefits will become as obvious to you as will its impact on your sexual, emotional and spiritual connection.

By appointment

Cost: $90 per couple; $70 per single individual.

Location: West Mt. Airy, near Chestnut Hill and 15 minutes from Narberth. Come dressed in 'yoga clothes'.
